Evento: 3° rd WSK Super Master Series – La Conca

THE 3RD WSK SUPER MASTER SERIES ROUND AT THE START

From March 15th to 18th the Kosmic Racing Department will get back on track at the International La Conca circuit for the running of the third round (out of four) of the WSK Series.

After the stopover (due to snow) that forced the suspension of 2nd round (which will be recovered the weekend of March 31st - April 1st), the WSK Super Master Series still get back on track in Muro Leccese, from March 15th to 18th, for the third round (out of four) of the series.

On the International La Conca circuit the Kosmic Racing Department will be present with all its drivers, ready to fight for gaining important scores valid for the final classification.

In KZ2 the expert Patrik Hajek, winner last year on the Salento track and vice-champion WSK 2017, will make his debut of the season and will support the confirmed Axel Bengtsson and Oliver Rasmussen, while in the OK category, Roman Stanek and Viktor Gustafsson are called upon to bring up their Kosmic Mercury S powered by Vortex, with the aim to repeat (and if possible to improve) the excellent second place of Karol Basz conquered in the 2017 edition.

In the OKJ category, Rafael Camara and Hadrien David will get back on track with the right competitive lead in an attempt to realize with a top result the excellent potential already shown in Adria, while Jules Caranta will wear for the first time the colors of the Kosmic Racing Department and will have to deal with the best interpreters of the 60 Mini class.

The third stage of the WSK Super Master Series will be available be at www.wskarting.it in live timing since the free practice of Thursday, while the Prefinals and the Finals on Sunday will be broadcast live streaming on the same website.
