RICCARDO IANNIELLO EXPATRIATES TO THE USA WITH NF SPORTS USA

Roman driver Riccardo Ianniello will take part to the Florida Winter Tour in the Mini Rok class with NF Sports USA.

The 2019 season starts with a breaking news for Riccardo Ianniello: the young up-and-coming driver will take part to his first race outside Italian soil thanks to the collaboration between his team, KGT Racing Team led by Stefano Tredicine, and NF Sports run by Bruno Fusaro and André Nicastro.

Riccardo will join Rubens Barrichello and his sons under the same tend on occasion of the first round of the Florida Winter Tour, valid for the Rok Cup USA, that will go underway on January 17th at the Hard Rock Stadium in Miami, Florida.

"I'm super excited to race in the USA! It's the best news to start this new season. Being under the same tend with Rubens Barrichello will be an incredible occasion to learn by a former F1 driver. – comments Riccardo – I started training last week to be 100% ready for this new challenge. I'm really looking forward to have a great weekend over there!"

Riccardo and his staff thank his sponsors: ISP Logistica and BER Racing Europe.
