

ALEX IRLANDO

OK SEASONAL DEBUT FOR ALEX IRLANDO

On his home soil, the Apulian circuit of La Conca circuit near Lecce, Alex Irlando will make his debut in the OK class with BirelART.

After the big steps forward shown during the last round of the WSK Super Master Series in the KZ2 class, Alex Irlando jumps on the direct drive TM-powered BirelART to fight in the OK class in La Conca, Lecce (ITA). This race will mark his debut with the direct drive kart made in Lissone.

"First race in OK and I'll race it on my home track: La Conca! It's a very grippy and demanding track that pushes karts and drivers to their limits. It will be a tough battle against all the purist of the direct drive karting, but it challenges me! I'll give my 100% and then let's see how it goes!"

Here is the program of the weekend.
