

THE CHEQUERED FLAG ON WSK SUPER MASTER SERIES 2019 IN SARNO (I) FROM MARCH 21ST TO 24TH. THE FOURTH AND FINAL ROUND OPEN TO CATEGORIES OK, OK JUNIOR AND 60 MINI TO BE JOINED BY KZ2. FINAL RACES LIVE ON SUNDAY 24TH FROM WSK.IT.

SARNO (SALERNO, ITALY), MARCH 18TH, 2019

THE SPRINT TO THE LINE AT THE FEET OF THE VESUVIUS. The closing act of WSK Super Master Series 2019 is approaching fast as the series will conclude its four rounds with the decisive weekend in Sarno (SA). The 1547 meters of the International Circuit Napoli will provide the last chance to try and get the victory in the four entitled categories from Thursday, March 21st to Sunday, March 24th. Battles are going to be quite exciting as no category has had clear domination so far. At the feet of the Vesuvio mountain, KZ2 will also join the other categories for its second and closing round of WSK Super Master Series. Each and one of the protagonists will be part of a weekend where the media attention is going to be very high thanks to the efforts put in by WSK Promotion. The live streaming captured by WSK Promotion's cameras is going to be unmissable as every category will have two wins to hunt for: the single race and the final standings.

THE FINAL PODIUM LIVE FROM SARNO.

Pursuing tactics eyeing the final classification or hunting for winning the race, this is the question for the Finals to be held on Sunday, March 24th. Either way, all the action will be available from the wsk.it webpage and from WSK Promotion's Facebook page. The points scoring scheme will reach its maximum that amounts to 153 points, summing P1 after qualifying heats and the victory of Prefinal and Final. After the first three rounds, everything is still possible. The Scot Dexter Patterson (KR-lame-Bridgestone) is leading OK at 239 points and is followed by Lorenzo Trivisanutto (KR-lame) at 201 and by the Brit Taylor Barnard (KR-lame) at 158. Things are not more defined in OK Junior either where Andrea Kimi Antonelli (KR-lame-Vega) holds P1 at 215 points, while the Dutch Thomas Ten Brinke (FA Kart-Vortex) and the Russian Nikita Bedrin (Tony Kart-Vortex) chase him equal on points at 154. The Belgian Ian Eyckmans (Parolin-TM-Vega) is leading 60 Mini from Emirates' Rashid Al Dhaheri (Parolin-TM) 227 vs 189 points, while the Jamaican Alex Powell (Energy-TM) is also very close at 185. Before the second and closing round of KZ2, the Dutch Bas Lammers is leading from the French Adrien Renaudin (both on Sodikart-TM-Bridgestone) as the two respectively stand first and second at 91 and 89 points. The Dutch Marijn Kremers (BirelArt-TM) is third at 67 points.
