

ALEX IRLANDO

ALEX IRLANDO STARTS THE CIK-FIA SEASON

After the round of the FFSA French OK Championship, Alex Irlando kicks off the CIK-FIA OK European Championship in Angerville (FRA).

18 year-old Alex Irlando starts his European campaign where he raced his last race two weeks ago: Angerville, France. The French racetrack, infact, will host the first round of the CIK-FIA European OK Championship that has 73 OK drivers enrolled. The remaining four events will be held in Belgium (Genk), Sweden (Kristianstad), France again (Le Mans) and Finland (Alaharma).

"Things are getting serious now! This will be my only entire championship in OK for this season and I'm really looking forward to take home a good result. The chassis is good, the engine is a rocket and I'll do my best: we're ready to get underway!"

Here is the program of the race.
