PRESS RELEASE

The WSK Euro Series' titles to be decided in Sarno

The International Circuit Napoli in Sarno is about to host the second round of the WSK Euro Series, from September 25th to 29th, and will decide the winners of 2024 season enriching a particularly prestigious Hall of Fame.

Sarno (ITA), 24.09.2024

The WSK Euro Series is ready to contest its second and decisive round at the International Napoli Circuit in Sarno over the weekend of September 29th. This will be the final act of the series that will determine the 2024 season winners. If the WSK Super Cup at the beginning of September represented the best way to return to the track after the summer break, the second round of the Euro Series is the perfect continuation of this second half of the season for the great international karting organized by WSK Promotion.

In the first round of the WSK Euro Series, held at Franciacorta at the end of June, which attracted drivers from all over the world, the category winners were the Scottish driver Mason Robertson (BabyRace/Parolin-lame) in MINI U10, the Spaniard Daniel Miron Lorente (Team Driver/KR-lame) in MINI Gr.3, the Swede Scott Lindblom (Fusion Motorsport/KR-lame) in OK, the Englishman Roman Kamyab (Ricky Flynn/LN Kart-TM Kart) in OKJ, Turkey's Bati Ege Yildirim (Modena Kart/Parolin-TM Kart) in OKN, and the Brazilian Antonio Pizzonia Neto (Team Driver/KR-lame) in OKNJ.

A lot of prestigious names in the Hall of Fame of the WSK Euro Series!

The WSK Euro Series boasts an exceptionally rich and prestigious Hall of Fame, which began in 2010 with numerous talents who now occupy a place on the Formula 1 starting grid. Starting with Max Verstappen, who inaugurated the first edition of the Euro Series by winning the junior KF3 category and then repeating the success in 2011 and 2013 with victory in the KZ1 shifter category. The following year, Charles Leclerc won the KF2, and in 2013 Lando Norris enriched the record with success in the KF Junior. In 2019, Andrea Kimi Antonelli added his name to the OKJ Hall of Fame, and in 2020 in that of OK. Many other talents have contributed to the prestige of the WSK Euro Series, which this year celebrates its tenth edition

Live on TV.

The final phase on Sunday, September 29th, will be broadcast live on TV and streamed live on the WSK Promotion Facebook page, the WSK website, Motorsport.com, and YouTube.:
