

PRESS RELEASE

The WSK Super Master Series inaugurates the renewed circuit of Viterbo

The Leopard Circuit Viterbo is gearing up to host the final round of the WSK Super Master Series next March 12 - 16 with about 250 drivers ready to fight for the titles in all the categories.

Viterbo (ITA), 11.03.2025

Just days after the spectacular and packed fourth round of the WSK Super Master Series in Franciacorta, the WSK circus is ready to tackle the final round of the Series with about 250 entered drivers at the renewed "Leopard Circuit Viterbo".

1300 meters to be discovered.

It will be a new experience for many of the participants who for the first time will try their hand at this 1300-meter track, consisting of 16 corners (10 right-handers, 6 left-handers) and two straights of 170 meters. The paddock and the entire building with the race direction, secretariat, press room and the new restaurant and bar premises have been renovated.

Over 150 points still up for grabs.

From Wednesday, March 12th, the engines will be turned on for this fifth and final round that will define the champions of the WSK Super Master Series 2025. The standings are still open in all categories, thanks also to the score that, like the last round in Franciacorta, is increased compared to the first three rounds in La Conca, Sarno and Lonato. A good 153 points are still up for grabs: 13 points for the heats scaling from 1st to 13th, 60 points for the Prefinal scaling from 1st to 16th, 80 points for the Final scaling from 1st to 20th.

The classifications and the main candidates to the title.

MINI U10 - Pasquali interrupts Bergman's hegemony.

After the hegemony of the American Josh Bergman (Kidix Driver Performance/KR-lame-Vega) in the first three rounds of the championship, in Franciacorta Daniel Pasquali (CRG Racing Team/T-Group-TM Kart) took over who with a full haul both in the Prefinal and in the Final interrupting Bergman's hegemony and launching himself as the main antagonist.
